the most important theological work of the 20th century in a new edition now available in individual volumes when holy scripture is read aloud in the liturgy the church confesses with joy and thanksgiving that it has heard the word of the lord what does it mean to make that confession and why does it occasion praise the doctrine of scripture is a theological investigation into those and related questions and this book is an exploration of that doctrine it argues backward from the church s liturgical practice presupposing the truth of the christian confession namely that the canon does in fact mediate the living word of the risen christ to and for his people what must be true of the sacred texts of old and new testament alike for such confession and the practices of worship in which they are embedded to be warranted by way of an answer the book examines six aspects of the doctrine of scripture its source nature attributes ends interpretation and authority the result is a catholic and ecumenical presentation of the historic understanding of the bible common to the people of god across the centuries an understanding rooted in the church s sacred tradition in service to the gospel and redounding to the glory of the triune god the basics for christian faith a well organized examination of ten major doctrines including 80 subjects by topical listing designed to supplement personal bible study instead of doubting everything that can be doubted let us rather doubt nothing until we are compelled to doubt contents the doctrine of god the doctrine of jesus christ the doctrine of the holy spirit the doctrine of man the doctrines of salvation repentance faith regeneration justification adoption sanctification prayer the doctrine of the church the doctrine of the scriptures the doctrine of angels the doctrine of satan the doctrine of the last things the second coming of christ the resurrection the judgment the destiny of the wicked the reward of the righteous the demand for this book has come from the students in the class room who have listened to these lectures on the great doctrines of the bible and have desired and requested that they be put into permanent form for the purpose of further study and reference this volume is prepared therefore primarily but not exclusively for the student and with his needs in mind the doctrines herein treated are dealt with from the standpoint of biblical rather than dogmatic theology this is evident from the plan which is followed in the work namely to gather together all the scripture passages dealing with the subject under consideration and from them choose a required number that may be called representative then seek to understand the meaning of these references by the study of the text itself as well as its context and parallel passages and finally from the selected proof texts formulate the doctrinal teaching and place such results under appropriate headings the doctrines of god jesus christ and the holy spirit are more fully dealt with than the doctrines which follow this is especially true of the doctrine of god the reason for this is to set forth the method pursued in these studies and to give a pattern for the study of the doctrines to follow it is intended that the doctrines of this book should be studied side by side with the open bible it is for this reason that many of the scripture references are indicated by chapter and verse only there must be constant reference to the scriptures themselves a compendium of the doctrines of the gospel by franklin d richards and james a little compendium of the doctrines of the gospel was the first reasonably comprehensive topically organized doctrinal exposition the church ever produced it took 74 key gospel topics and provided a succinct statement regarding each along with key scriptural and other references

we agree with dr torrey that there is great need for clear and popular preaching of christian doctrine this need was met by dr torrey in the case of his own church and will now be met in that of many readers to whom these sermons shall come in printed form there are fifteen sermons and the subjects treated are the inspiration of the bible the christian conception of god the deity and person of christ the personality and deity of the holy spirit the atonement justification the new birth sanctification the resurrection of the body the devil future punishment these great doctrines are expounded clearly simply and in a thoroughly evangelic spirit and tone we would close this notice by emphasizing again the great need today for just such preaching as dr torrey has given in these sermons and by commending them to all who feel the need of instruction in the fundamental doctrines of christianity the princeton theological review the author is a congregational minister and his point of view is about the point of view that would have been taken by jonathan edwards the greatest of all congregational theologians he is strongly conservative and strongly calvinistic he believes in verbal inspiration and in literal hell fire his arguments are taken entirely from the bible to him the bible is final authority on all questions the reader will find this book a vast storehouse of proof texts logically and systematically arranged these sermons drew large audiences the author avoids all technical and scholastic terms and speaks in the language of the bible and of the people the layman who wishes to know what the bible teaches on these fundamental doctrines will find this a helpful book the union seminary review for young christians as well as many older ones this will be most helpful it is a much felt need today that there should be more thorough instruction on the essentials of the christian faith and mr torrey s exceptional ability as a bible student makes him a most helpful teacher on this subject record of christian work instruction in the fundamental truths of christianity first delivered as sermons publishers weekly the sermons fifteen in number cover the principal subjects of christian doctrine in an attractive clear and earnest way and are calculated to help many to a deeper and more serious reckoning with their christian profession we have profited by contact with his earnest christian mind the living church contents i inspiration or to what extent is the bible inspired of god ii the christian conception of god or the god of the bible as distinguished from the god of christian science and the god of modern philosophy iii the christian conception of god the infinite perfection and unity of god iv the deity of jesus christ v jesus christ a real man vi the personality of the holy spirit vii the deity of the holy spirit and the distinction between the father son and holy spirit viii the atonement god s doctrine of the atonement vs unitarian and christian science doctrines of the atonement ix the distinctive doctrine of protestantism justification by faith x the new birth xi sanctification xii the resurrection of the body of jesus and of our bodies xiii the devil xiv is there a literal hell xv is future punishment everlasting the doctrine of god is the foundation of christian theology and the prerequisite of all true faith this translation provides in the words of hendriksen a spiritual treat for the serious reader thomas f torrance offers a detailed study of the most profound article of the christian faith the holy trinity torrance adopts a holistic approach when examining the interrelatedness of the three persons father son and the holy spirit and their dynamic communion with the being and nature of god combining immense academic range with his characteristically fresh theological perspective torrance builds a significant theological bridge between ancient and modern as well as between the roman and protestant theology he engages deeply with the church fathers and discusses the ontological nature of god here torrance conveys a simple message the doctrine of the trinity is the doctrine of god from back cover described by pope pius xii as the most important theologian since thomas aquinas the swiss pastor and theologian karl barth continues to be a major influence on students scholars and preachers today barth s theology found its expression mainly through his closely reasoned fourteen part magnum opus die kirchliche dogmatik having taken over 30 years to write the church dogmatics is regarded as one of the most important theological works of all time and represents the pinnacle of barth s achievement as a theologian t t clark international is now proud to be publishing the only complete english translation of the church dogmatics in paperback
